Number One, Summer 1991

Virginia Cavalcade:
For Forty Years the Old Dominion's Magazine of History and Culture 4
Fair Shadows:
Virginia, Photographs, and the 1939 World's Fair
EDWARD D. C. CAMPBELL, JR. 6
The Life of a Poor Relation:
The Art and Artistry of Marietta Minnigerode Andrews
BARBARA J. GRIFFIN 20
The Photographer as Documentary Artist:
The Work of Edyth Carter Beveridge
STACY GIBBONS MOORE 34

Number Two, Autumn 1991

To Speak and Act as Freemen:
The Emergence of Black Republicans in Postbellum Virginia
RICHARD LOWE 52
The Art of Make-Believe:
The Bookplates of Dugald Stewart Walker
STACY GIBBONS MOORE AND EDWARD D. C. CAMPBELL, JR. 64
The Archaeology of Plantation Life:
Another Perspective on George Washington's Mount Vernon
DENNIS J. POGUE 74
Actions Make the Officer:
The Creation of George Washington
JOHN E. FERLING 84

Number Three, Winter 1992

A Race with a Panther:
The WPA Collection of Virginia Folk Legends
THOMAS E. BARDEN 100
Fliers on the Home Front:
Virginia's Civil Air Patrol in World War II
LOUIS E. KEEFER 112
The Price of Honor:
R. E. Lee and the Question of Confederate Surrender
ALAN T. NOLAN 124
Thicker'in Huckleberries:
Moonshiners and Revenuers in Franklin County, 1900–1930
EMILY J. SALMON 132

Number Four, Spring 1992

Aristocratic Company:
Colonel John Singleton Mosby and the French Artistes
HAROLD HOLZER AND MARK E. NEELY, JR. 148
Art as Ammunition:
Posters, World War I, and the Virginia Home Front 158
Exhibitions of Talents:
Adele Williams and the Richmond Art Scene
MARY LYNN BAYLISS 166
The Price of Honor:
R. E. Lee and the Question of Confederate Surrender
ALAN T. NOLAN 178

Virginia Cavalcade is a quarterly publication of the Virginia State Library and Archives, Richmond, Virginia.